AIMS AND SCOPE

The OJPR, as an international multi-disciplinary peer-reviewed online open access academic journal, publishes academic articles deal with different problems and topics in various areas of psychology (neuroscience, educational psychology, developmental psychology, social psychology, personality psychology, comparative psychology, experimental psychology, applied psychology, methodology of psychological research, etc.).

The OJPR provides a platform for the manuscripts from different areas of research, which may rest on the full spectrum of established methodologies, including theoretical discussion and empirical investigations. The manuscripts may represent a variety of theoretical perspectives and different methodological approaches.

The OJPR is already indexed in Crossref (DOI), BASE (Bielefeld Academic Search Engine), Google Scholar, J-Gate, ResearchBib and WorldCat - OCLC, and is applied for indexing in the other bases (Clarivate Analytics – SCIE, ESCI, and SSCI, Scopus, ERIH Plus, Ulrich's Periodicals Directory, Cabell's Directory, SHERPA/RoMEO, EZB - Electronic Journals Library, Directory of Research Journals Indexing, NewJour, CiteFactor, Global Impact Factor, Open Academic Journals Index, etc.).

The authors of articles accepted for publishing in the OJPR should get the ORCID number (www.orcid.org).

The journal is now publishing 2 times a year.

PEER REVIEW POLICY

All manuscripts submitted for publishing in the OJPR are expected to be free from language errors and must be written and formatted strictly according to the latest edition of the APA style. Manuscripts that are not entirely written according to APA style and/or do not reflect an expert use of the English language will not be considered for publication and will not be sent to the journal reviewers for evaluation. It is completely the author's responsibility to comply with the rules. We highly recommend that non-native speakers of English have manuscripts proofread by a copy editor before submission. However, proof of copy editing does not guarantee acceptance of a manuscript for publication in the OJPR.

The OJPR operates a double-blind peer reviewing process. The manuscript should not include authors' names, institutional affiliations, contact information. Also, authors' own works need to be blinded in the references (see the APA style). All submitted manuscripts are reviewed by the editors, and only those meeting the aims and scope of the journal will be sent for outside review. Each manuscript is reviewed by at least two reviewers.

The editors are doing their best to reduce the time that elapses between a paper's submission and publication in a regular issue. It is expected that the review and publication processes will be completed in about 2-3 months after submission depending on reviewers' feedback and the editors' final decision. If revisions are requested some changing and corrections then publication time becomes longer. At the end of the review process, accepted papers will be published on the journal's website.

OPEN ACCESS POLICY

The OJPR is an open access journal which means that all content is freely available without charge to the user or his/her institution. Users are allowed to read, download, copy, distribute, print, search, or link to the full texts of the articles, or use them for any other lawful purpose, without asking prior permission from the publisher or the author. This is in accordance with the BOAI definition of open access.

All articles published in the OJPR are licensed under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License.

Authors hold the copyrights of their own articles by acknowledging that their articles are originally published in the OJPR.

The COAS Open Journals, as international multi-disciplinary peer-reviewed online open access academic journals, provide platforms for the research manuscripts in different scientific disciplines. The journals welcome original theoretical works and empirical investigations. The manuscripts may represent a variety of theoretical perspectives and different methodological approaches.

The articles in the COAS journals are published in Open Access mode, and they are available freely and immediately worldwide.

The COAS journals accept the following types of manuscripts: (1) research articles - presenting the results of primary scientific research and typically following the format of a traditional research paper, in a form of complete descriptions of current original research findings; (2) review articles - presenting conceptual advances and integration of a field or topic, as a synthesis of the results of many different articles on a particular topic, in a form of a coherent narrative about the state in chosen field; (3) conference proceedings.

The COAS journals also invite researchers to submit proposals for special (or thematic) issues, which also can involve papers from a conference. Those responsible for an approved proposal may be invited to take on the role of guest editors.

The authors of articles accepted for publishing in our journals should get the ORCID number (www.orcid.org).

All COAS Journals are already listed in Crossref (DOI), Google Scholar, BASE (Bielefeld Academic Search Engine), J-Gate, ResearchBib and WorldCat - OCLC, and are applied for indexing in the other bases: Clarivate Analytics – SCIE, ESCI, SSCI and AHCI, Scopus, ERIH Plus, JSTOR, Ulrich's Periodicals Directory, Cabell's Directory, SHERPA/RoMEO, EZB - Electronic Journals Library (OJER, OJSS and OJSH are already listed), etc.

The COAS deposits all digital units (the journals' separate articles and complete issues) to the Internet Archive (<https://archive.org/>).

In order to publish your academic article in the COAS journals you may contact us at sciart@centerprode.com, or at the journals' e-mails.
